Keiter, Slabaugh, Penny & Holme Adds New Consultant

Glen Allen, VA – Keiter, Slabaugh, Penny & Holme, LLC (KSPH), an employee benefits and human resource management firm, announces that Dawn W. Hall has joined the firm as a Consultant.

Jeff Penny, founding partner of KSPH, was pleased to have Dawn Hall join the team, "I have worked with Dawn in the past and am excited about the experience and expertise she adds to our firm. She has worked with many types of clients in the Virginia market and has earned a great reputation with Virginia employers."

Hall has over 20 years of experience in the employee benefits field, which includes exposure to clients of all sizes throughout the country, including employers in the public and private sector, and has helped to conduct projects related to health and welfare, compensation, communications, and specialized national surveys. She was recently a Consultant in the Health and Welfare Division of Wachovia Insurance Services (formerly Palmer & Cay) in Richmond, Virginia.

Hall received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Richmond. She is a certified member of the Professional Academy for Healthcare Management and a member of the Health Insurance Association of America.
